One day Timmy came home from school very excited... "Mommy, Mommy, guess what? Today in English I got all the way to the end of the alphabet, and everyone else got messed up around 'S'!" His mom said, "Very good, dear. That's because you're a tuba player." The next day, Timmy was even more excited. "Mommy, Mommy, guess what! Today in math I counted all the way to ten, but everyone else messed up around seven!" "Very good, dear," his mother replied. "That's because you're a tuba player." On the third day, Timmy was beside himself. "Mommy, Mommy, today we measured ourselves and I'm the tallest one in my class! Is that because I'm a tuba player?" His mother replied, "No dear, that is because you are 27 years old."

Why Make a Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament? Each holy hour that you make brings the world and everyone in the world closer to Christ. In your holy hour, "you are presenting to Christ all those who do not know Him or are far from Him. You keep watch in His Presence on their behalf," bringing down upon these souls in most need of God's mercy the Precious Blood of the Lamb to obtain their conversion so they go to Heaven to be with God for all eternity. (Eucharist: Sacrament to Be Adored, by John Paul II, L'Osservatore Romano 26 June 1996) Your holy hour deepens your union with Christ and brings great joy to His Heart and will make your soul everlastingly more glorious for all eternity. Through Eucharistic Adoration, you "contribute to the radical transformation of the whole world." (Eucharist: Sacrament to Be Adored, by John Paul II, L'Osservatore Romano 26 June 1996) Adoration blesses the Church with vocations by providing an atmosphere where the Lord calls forth those whom He desires for priesthood or religious life. Your holy hour helps fallen-away Catholics return to the Church. Eucharistic Adoration builds a bridge for our separated brethren to feel a place of welcome as all are invited to adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Your holy hour "makes reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world." (Dominicae Cenaе, by John Paul II, February 24, 1980) Your holy hour gives you the "peace that surpasses all understanding." (Phil. 4:7, John 14:27, John 20:19)

Stewardship is the concept that shows God is our priority. It means we recognize that God as the owner of everything that that everything is His gift to us. By using time to serve Him, by tithing to support the Church and the poor, and by publicly celebrating God at the Mass, we give our response in recognition that God is the real source of all in our lives.
